Historic Carondelet in the 21st Century

shopping | entertainment | culture

Packed with history and historic structures, this urban setting features an amazing array of eclectic shops, restaurants and entertainment offerings with easy access and amazing vistas of the Mississippi.

LOUGHBOROUGH COMMONS

With easy access from I-55, Loughborough Commons lies just south of luscious Carondelet Park. A newly re-developed shopping and dining area, Loughborough Commons offers an array of shops and restaurants with national and regional reputations. Buy a bit of lumber or a bunch of bananas while sipping an espresso, and return later for pizza and a beer.

IVORY & MICHIGAN

Ivory and Michigan is centered around a Carondelet cultural gem, The Ivory Theater, featuring popular and contemporary stage productions. The area has many dining and drinking establishments for before- and after-show opportunities and enjoyment at any time.

CARONDELET INDUSTRIAL AREA

East of South Broadway bordering the Mississippi River are located manufacturing, light industrial and office/warehouse establishments with highway, rail and river access.

BATES & GRAND

Just north of Carondelet Park lies Bates & Grand which features a range of restaurants both “fast and slow,” plus unique and convenient shopping opportunities.

BATES & VIRGINIA

Tightly clustered at Bates & Virginia world-class meets common necessities – savor a fabulous meal or fill-up your other tank with petrol.

MICHIGAN & HOLLY HILLS

At the heart of Carondelet lie Michigan & Holly Hills. Many of Carondelet’s community services are located here as well as the local’s favorite haunts.

SOUTH BROADWAY

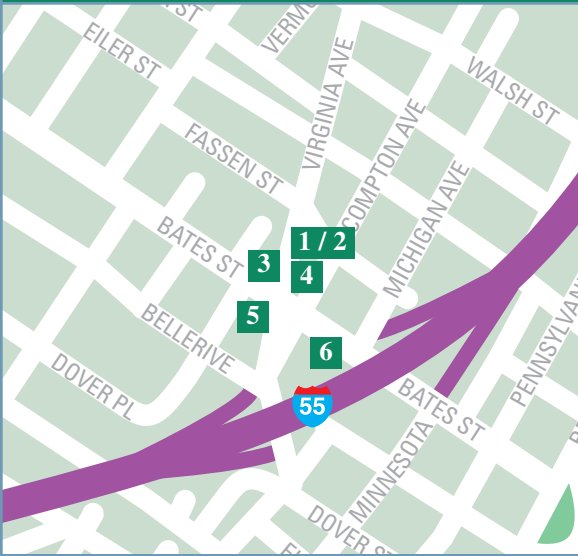

The longest and largest district in the area, South Broadway encompasses an eclectic mix of shopping and dining opportunities. 27 restaurants and retail shops span the length of Carondelet north to south.

SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

A wide variety of music is offered throughout the summer months at Carondelet’s public parks. Sunday evenings feature concerts June, July and August in Carondelet Park from 6-8 pm. Mondays in June there will be concerts in South St. Louis Square Park from 7-9 pm and in July in Bellerive Park from 7-9 pm. The fourth Tuesday of June, July and August there will be concerts in Fanetti Park from 7-9 pm.
